A future that looks extraordinary.

SUVs of the past cannot be a template for those of the future. That's why the new Kia Syros is a not a small step but a big leap in design. It stands out with its bold, modern exterior, featuring sleek lines and an athletic stance that commands attention. From the upright posture and high squared shoulders to the chiselled bonnet, and the futuristic LED headlamps with DRLs, it all comes together to reflect the new Kia design language in this distinctive and stylish SUV.

Comfort that transcends expectations.

To simply stand out is not enough. So, the new Kia Syros is here to be outstanding. A unique SUV that combines a low floor along with a long wheelbase. Inside, everything from the materials and textures to the 76.20 cm (30") Trinity Panoramic Display Panel are edgy and futuristic. The cabin feels luxurious, substantial and uncluttered, offering ample headroom, shoulder room and legroom for your utmost comfort. The rear seat with ventilation and recline and slide function, is the epitome of comfort and flexibility.
Every detail in the new Syros is crafted to enhance your experience, making every journey not just a drive, but a step into the future.
